RUGGEDTAB FLIP

Are you looking for a device that combines the functionalities of a keyboard laptop and a tablet?

One of the standout features of the RUGGEDTAB FLIP is its versatile keyboard. With just a simple flip of the cover, you can effortlessly pop out the stand, allowing you to keep the screen upright and type away comfortably as if you were using a laptop. Alternatively, you have the option to detach the tablet from the stand, giving you the freedom to work independently and make the most of its tablet mode.

Embrace versatility and durability with the RUGGEDTAB FLIP — the ultimate device for those who crave the functionalities of a keyboard laptop and the convenience of a tablet, without sacrificing durability.
